

TWELFTH NIGHT: ACT 4
YEAR 3 AND YEAR 4
PUNCTUATION EXERCISE: POSSESSIVE APOSTROPHES

A possessive apostrophe is used to show that one thing belongs to or is connected to something.

Read the examples below:

1. Sir Andrew's bony hand went crashing into the side of Cesario's head.

Andrew is a singular noun so you need to add an apostrophe and "s" to show that the hand belongs to Andrew.

2. The sailors' swords were pulled out, ready to fight.

Sailors is a plural noun that ends in an "s" so you don't add another "s" after your apostrophe. You can just add an apostrophe to show the swords belonged to the warriors.

3. People's tongues were wagging.

People is a plural noun but it doesn't end with an "s" so you need to add an apostrophe and "s" to show that the tongues belonged to the people.

1. Ross' mouth couldn't utter the words.

Ross is a singular noun that ends in an "s", so you need to add an apostrophe to show that the mouth belongs to Ross.
