SEMI COLONS ;

A semi-colon can be used instead of a full stop between two related sentences. This links them together in a way a full stop doesn't.

Useful video:
https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvwwxnb/articles/zshfdxs

TASK
Add a semi colon to each sentence so that it makes sense.

1. The waves were as tall as mountains they crashed against the rocks causing havoc in the sea.

2. Ferdinand swam to shore he was a strong, confident swimmer.

3. Shouts echoed around another part of the island pounding footsteps rang through the trees and a man appeared, wild-eyed with sadness.

4. Gonzalo was a wise man he spoke softly so as to calm King Alonso's spirit

5. Antonio and Sebastian were traitors they only cared about their own wealth and power.

6. A song of warning reached King Alonso's ears it was Ariel helping prevent him from death.

7. Trinculo looked nervously around he didn't like the look of this unknown and strange island.

8. Stephano drank from his bottle he could hardly stand and was a disgrace to behold.

9. Caliban hid under his cloak his strong and hairy legs sticking out from underneath.

10. Trinculo, Caliban and Stephano set off to discover what the island had in store from them Caliban and Stephano singing with merriment and Trinculo unsure of this new found friendship.